Dearest Mr Dumbreck and Crew

May I take this opportunity to thank yourself and your crew for the totally professional disco and band hire that you provided for my wedding this weekend. Despite the reception being on a Hebridean Island, (ps that's in Scotland for all ewe's Angles) , the service that I and my guests received was second to none. Despite having to get around the Scottish Midge, Calmac Ferries and the £1 plus per litre diesel, MSD, proved, once again, that Hamish should really give up his day job and take up this up full time.

I have known MSD from its conception to what you see today, it is Best Value, Value for Money, Local, Fun and Logical.

You won't get the same service from anyone else, despite what the others may claim

MSD is a talented bunch of enthusiasts, not a bunch of money grabbing wannabies.

My wedding guests have never met MSD before, but the prior sentiments were those expressed by them.

Hamish, Dr Jon ,Loz, Ben, Becky and Carol,

Party like its Claddich Beach and Portnahaven Hall.

Islay has never seen the likes again.

PS Runrig used to play there lots too, and look at them now.....
